CRITICAL PATH INSTITUTE

C-Path's K. Romero Co-Authors Special Report- Striving for an Integrated Drug-Development Process for Neurodegeneration: the Coalition Against Major Diseases

Alzheimer's and Parkinson's diseases are the two main neurodegenerative disorders and despite the public health need, drug development for these conditions has been plagued by a high attrition rate in the late phases of evaluation.