

Eileen Priest

Eileen Priest is the Project Coordinator for the Critical Path for Alzheimer's Disease (CPAD) consortium at the Critical Path Institute (C-Path). She holds a bachelor's degree in French Studies from Brigham Young University and brings over 15 years of experience providing administrative support spanning multiple industries. Eileen will manage all administrative tasks and activities and support the Sr. Project Manager with day-to-day consortium operations. With her combined professionalism and enthusiasm, Eileen is excited to part of CPAD ensure consortium objectives and goals are being met.