

Considerations for Requiring Subjects to Respond to PRO Instruments Collected Electronically

This webinar provides an overview of specific considerations related to allowing subjects to opt out of responding to individual items when PRO data collection is electronic as well as the relevance to other types of electronic clinical outcome assessments.

Presenter: Paul O'Donohoe, MS (CRF Health)