

The Duchenne Regulatory Science Consortium – A public-private partnership to facilitate sharing of clinical data for the development of regulatory tools to accelerate drug development (Abstract)