

C-Path Announces FDA Commissioner Robert Califf to Participate in Opening Session at Inaugural Global Impact Conference

#CGIC24 Registration Nears Capacity; Closes Saturday, Aug. 31

TUCSON, Ariz., August 30, 2024 — Critical Path Institute (C-Path) is honored to announce that FDA Commissioner Robert M. Califf, M.D., MACC, will participate as a panelist during the opening session of its inaugural C-Path Global Impact Conference (CGIC) on Monday, September 9, at the Washington Marriott at Metro Center.

“We are thrilled to welcome Commissioner Califf to our annual impact conference underscoring the importance of our shared mission to accelerate drug development across multiple therapeutic areas, including neurology, rare diseases, and pediatrics,” said C-Path CEO Klaus Romero, M.D., M.S., FCP. “With a long history of collaboration with the FDA, our organization has been at the forefront of forming public-private partnerships that drive innovation and address unmet medical needs. Dr. Califf plays a crucial role in this relationship, and we look forward to continuing our work together to advance tools and solutions that will ultimately benefit patients and their families.”

Dr. Robert Califf,
FDA Commissioner

CGIC marks a significant milestone of C-Path’s mission, bringing together leaders from the FDA, EMA, industry, academia, and patient advocacy to foster dialogue and innovation in drug development. The conference will feature presentations and panels focused on integrating insights, advances in regulatory landscapes, and fostering collaborative solutions.
